News

There has been many questions regarding the future of EMS. In response, the office is open and providing educational services. The training resources and library is available for checkout upon request. There will be classes available as usual. At this time nothing has changed and business will carry on as normal.

Mary Granger will be lead instructor this September for what looks to be a large and promising EMT-Basic course. There is still room available, contact the EMS office with any questions.

Amanda will be on vacation July 20th returning the 27th. Please contact Tonya Buxton at 751-8109

At this time all classes are tentative and dates and instructors TBA. This will give you an idea when to look for your refreshers and CEU's. If you have taught these classes in the past and are interested and available to do them again, Please contact the EMS office so we can begin the planning process.

Thanks,
Amanda Lindgren
